Piscatawayreads.org is a community-based initiative to promote reading and the enhancement of literacy among all its members. Literacy, the ability to read, write, and communicate clearly, facilitates success in school and in life and guides us in social and cultural interactions.

Literacy possesses no boundaries; it cannot be constrained by gender or age, ethnicity or culture, socioeconomic groups or profession. It welcomes all and serves as a gracious host who guides us from adventure to adventure as we explore the vast world of books and reading.

Reading is a magical experience! It opens the doors to enjoyment, fulfillment, and information. We journey back in time, travel to distant planets, and enter realms both mystical and fantastic. While there, we live different lives and experience the impossible.

However, for the adventure to begin, the cover of a book must first be opened. We invite you and your children to join piscatawayreads and embark on a journey that transcends time and space, yet draws you closer.

“Every man who knows how to read has it in his power to magnify himself, to multiply the ways in which he exists, to make his life full, significant and interesting.”

Aldous Huxley
